Aquinas Writing Advantage (AWA)

SCOPE AND SEQUENCE

Homeschool Connections has put together a full middle through high school writing program for you and your children:

- Complete, progressive, and thorough
- Give your student all the skills needed—foundations, development, advanced, and creative writing
- Leaves no gaps and prepares your student for college and the workplace

Every child and every homeschool is different. You know your child best, so you always have the final say in your child's education at HSC. Therefore, courses can be taken in a different order or at a different pace, as long as students have successfully completed the required prerequisites or tested out of the prerequisites (see <https://homeschoolconnections.com/writing-evaluations>)
